Regis House Community Center offers a unique opportunity for teens and young adults to experience a life-changing school year by participating as a youth worker assistant while earning the required community service hours, creating a reference file of work experience, and making a difference in a child's life

Volunteers will be under direct supervision and will help with hands-on projects, plan indoor & outdoor activities, gain skills in leadership, team building & communication, learn crafts and cooking ideas, and make new friends!

Please contact Kate Chiappe or Sister Albertina Morales

Regis House is seeking committed, caring, responsible, creative, organized and passionate volunteers to help as youth worker assistants.
